

Head of Finance Operations

Central London | Competitive Salary

Cancer Research UK is the world's leading charity dedicated to beating cancer through research. With a turnover of £498 million, financing the work of more than 4,800 researchers, doctors and nurses throughout the UK, its groundbreaking work into the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of cancer has saved millions of lives. Cancer Research UK needs to appoint a Head of Finance Operations to create a financial shared services model which will manage the organisation's financial transactions and continue their work in reducing the number of deaths from cancer.

Reporting into the Finance Director, a brand new opportunity has arisen for an exceptional, ambitious individual to unite and motivate multi-disciplined finance teams. You will deliver efficient and well-controlled financial operations whilst establishing the team as a genuine centre of excellence in Cancer Research UK and maintaining an effective financial systems environment.

For an informal discussion, please contact Maurice Goldstone at Allen Lane on 020 3031 9630 (during work hours) or on 07540 637 275 (evenings/weekends). Alternatively, please send your CV quoting current remuneration details to mauricegoldstone@allenlane.co.uk

To succeed in the role, you will be a qualified accountant with significant post-qualification experience, and outstanding leadership skills developed within a high profile and complex organisation, ideally within a financial shared services operation. An accomplished change manager, you will be expected to lead from the front in the production of the annual accounts, with your technical excellence extending to a good knowledge of accounting standards, taxes and regulations.

As you will be expected to deliver customer service of the highest order to stakeholders across the organisation up to executive board level, it is essential that you possess clear communication skills coupled with political awareness and discretion. Of equal significance, you will have the vision, drive and resilience to support others through the change that this new role will bring.
